

What does love for one another look like?

Listening to each other and helping one another

Respecting each other

Caring for each other

Caring for every individual you meet

It looks like respect, truth, friendship and trust

Kindness and respect