

Autumn term 2: What are the beatitudes and what do they mean to Christians?

The BIG Question!

What are the beatitudes and what do they mean to Christians?

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.	Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.
Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.	Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied.
Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy.	Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God.	Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

This term, we will be thinking about where the Beatitudes came from, why Christians have them and what they mean for them. We will be thinking about the moral decisions we make and why we make them.

L1: What are the beatitudes?

Our little learning questions...

L2: How do morals and values affect our decisions?

The Beatitudes are a list of blessings for God

I must remember...

Jesus taught on the Mount of Olives, that if Christians live out the beatitudes, they will live a blessed Christian life.

At the end of the unit, I must ...

- Be able to recall some of the Beatitudes
- Be able to reflect on how the Beatitudes helps Christians live
- Be able to talk about the morals that I live by and how they affect what I do.
